Course of Study

In the Old Testament, the training for ministry was Spirit led and was birthed in the school of the prophets. In the New Testament, the best model for ministry training is seen in the church in the cities of Antioch and Ephesus, as seen in Acts 11:19-26, 13:1-4, 14:26-28, 15:30-35 and 19:1-20.

Here we see the church in the city, alive with the power of God, with Paul, Barnabas, Silas, Dr. Luke, other prophets, and teachers, raising up men and women for fruitful ministry. They did so under the authority of the elders, and were accountable to those who sent them out.

This remains our model for education. University of Los Angeles College of Divinity is more than an academic institution. It is an educational ministry with spirit and power and a focus on the restoration and transformation of lives, cities, and nations by the power of God.

Bachelor Program

To complete the Bachelor's program, a student must:

Complete a minimum of 120 credit hours, 30 of which must be from University of Los Angeles College of Divinity. Fifteen of the required 30 credit hours must be from the required Program Core and the additional 15 credit hours must be from a prescribed Program Emphasis.

For purposes of admission and transfer to University of Los Angeles College of Divinity a "recognized college or university" includes schools approved by a U.S. State, or accredited by an accrediting body that is approved either by CHEA or the U.S. Department of Education. Institutions outside the United States must meet comparable standards through an approved transcript evaluation service.

We have individualized programs for emphasis in:

- Leadership
- Christian Counseling
- Theology
- Christian Education
- Women's Studies
- Chaplaincy
- Business
- Apostolic/Prophetic
