Why ULA?

THE CITY is Where the future is...

The metropolitan areas of the country and world have developed structures and systems that require political, economic, and moral decision-making. These decisions have definite effects on the lives and future of all people. ULA gives future church leaders the opportunity to understand the dynamics of urban culture and to relate that understanding to a biblical theology with the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

The city provides the Church with one of its greatest opportunities for ministry, and ULA has come into existence to educate and train students and church leaders in the understanding of the urban church and urban pastoral skills.

THE MODEL FOR MINISTRY TRAINING:

In the New Testament, the best model for ministry training is seen in the church at Antioch, especially Acts 11:19-26, 13:1-4, 14:26-28, 15:30-35, and 19:1-7.

Here we see a dynamic church, with Paul and Barnabas, other prophets, and teachers, raising up men and women for fruitful ministry. They did so under the authority of the elders, and were accountable to those who sent them out. This remains our model for education. University of Los Angeles is more than an academic institution. It is an educational ministry with spirit and power, with a focus on the restoration and transformation of our lives, cities, and nations by the power of God.

Our History in Brief

Using a unique combination of short-term research and leadership seminars and/or texts and audio and visual presentations, the student can proceed towards a recognized or accredited degree of distinction, and/or receive professional certification.

OUR HISTORY & MISSION

In 1982 a group of local religious leaders founded the University of Los Angeles College of Divinity in Los Angeles, California. Dr. Cornelious Green was inspired to join with Dr. Ronald Miller to form a local church training program in practical ministry and counseling. The church formed a training program and a college as a counseling ministry and training center while Dr. Miller pursued studies in psychology and theology.

PURPOSE AND PROGRAMS OF ULA

The University of Los Angeles College of Divinity was founded for education and training on both a local and international basis. From the beginning of the New Testament era, the Lord has used the local church and its pastoral leadership to teach and train its people for God's service. ULA is an instrument to be used by and for the local church to fulfill its calling. The University administrative offices are located in Los Angeles, California while the physical college is located in a state-of-the-art 16,000 square foot building in Compton, California.

The Mission

The mission of the University of Los Angeles College of Divinity is to effectively educate and train, by means of local and distance education, men and women called to Christian service.
